Talking of the matter in a saloon where they had been drinking, a man standing nearby remarked: "I have a machine outside, and will take you down for $10."

The bargain was struck, and the trip, according to the local men, wound up on some street in the residence section, where the engine suddenly went dead. The driver remarked, "It's lucky the accident happened so near home; I'll leave the machine there and come after it in the morning."

Thinking over the matter later, ne men realized that the driver's acous had been very curious, and rethe men realized that the driver's actions had been very curious, and reported the matter. They were unable to locate the spot where they left the machine, but described Dr. Jenkins' machine accurately, and there is little doubt that it was taken by some man who saw an easy way to get $10, and then abandoned

Dainty New Wash Waists

The new ones for Spring and Summer are here. Short sleeves are correct, and we carry short sleeve models in both high and low neck. This gives you a big range of choice.

You will know the quality of these waists when we mention that they are "Foster Made." Dainty, fine materials, made up just as carefully as possible, in pretty styles are the only kind that Foster produces. If you want a flashy, $1.50 waist for 98c, you must look elsewhere for it. But if you want a dainty waist, and care more about the materials and good workmanship, we have the best there are. Foster waists cost from $1.00

Pretty One-Piece Dresses

Have you seen our new linen dresses? They are made of a splendid quality of linen for the price, and are trimmed in brown, red, white or blue, with short sleeve, low neck, high waist, and buttons. And they cost just $5.00 and $6.00. Or we can give a chic, new serge dress, cut in the same lines for only $6.00.

We carry wash dresses in white and colors for girls of intermediate ages that have always been hard to fit-too big for children's sizes and too small for misses' sizes. We can fit you now. Let us show you.

A PROMISE AND A DUTY

If the Board of Supervisors takes early action toward the building of a road up Seviers Canyon to meet the road from Elsinore it will be carrying promise given long ago and re ceived by Riverside county in good faith. The promise is reason enough for undertaking the construction of the road. If any other reason is needed, let the county consider the large number of people who will be accommodated by another highway between the inland valley east of the Santa Ana mountains and the Orange county The road will aid in the the county. It will save many miles dents of this section who are called upon to journey into the Elsinore mountains and bridge lakes in order to save miles. The Seviers Canyon back of it arguing in its favor. More money is spent in the average grocery store than ever be fore and there are more grocery stores in which to spend it; but not all of it-or much of it-sticks to the grocer's hands. Wholesale prices have risen, but the rate of profit has not. The retail grocer is like the engraver of banknotes-he makes no more working on a thousand-dollar bill than he does on a one-dollar bill.

"Of course conditions differ. They differ with the city or town or village. In the village the store in which you buy groceries can hardly be called less than a general store, for feed and clothing and furniture and books, and even drugs, form part of its stock. Conditions depend also upon the neighborhood-upon the store itself. There are great department stores and mail order houses doing a vast ramified grocery business; and there are chains of stores, with hundreds of establishments under one management. Some of these stores doubt less earn their tens of thousands and others their hundreds of thousands. At the other end of the line is the miscroscopic cellar grocery, perhaps mental destiny of our country. Why is the presidential primary important? Because the primary election, which has taken the place of the former conventions, is the one and only agency through which the citizen may express his or her wish as to the character of candidate to be nominated by his or her party.

The presidential primary, on May 14th, will give the Republican voters of California their only opportunity to say whether they prefer progressive government (which in California has done so much for both our womanhood and our manhood), or whether they prefer reactionary government. It will provide the only opportunity for them to say whether they desire, as party leader, Theo-

Roosevelt, or another candidate. We believe in Roosevelt and progressive government, and we call to the cause every Republican woman in California. We have pleaded that ve, as women, were fit to rule ourselves, and progressive government in California has made it for us to do so. And, of course, it would interest not only the bean growers, but the orange growers, celery growers and all other farmers' co-operative marketing associations, not only of California, but throughout the United States, for they are all worked on essentially the same plan. While the report referred to is probably a fake, yet it has been ru mored before now that certain parties who had considered the bean growers their legitimate victims of prey, were about to take steps to have the bean growers association declared a trust, and put out of No doubt, the administration, hav-trusts nearer home out of business, must now go farther afield to complete the good work. And so the lima bean growers of California must be shown the evil of their ways. I am told that a certain old gentleman, a good old-time Democrat, who is much down on trusts, quit one of our associations, when badgered by friends that he was himself a member of a trust. In soliciting for membership for the apricot growers association I met a good old man who would not join "because the association is a trust." Under the circum stances I did not think it worth while to waste time in argument.

For, while the argu-The undersigned, as vice-presidents ment is entirely false, it is at times specious enough to mislead the less intelligent grower into thinking that really trusts, and by joining them he is upholding what he otherwise condemns, or that he is actually engag-

Now, the farmers' co-operative mar keting associations either are trusts or are not trusts. Let us see, I kinds of trusts, they are either good trusts or evil trusts. As a matter of fact, there is so much that is commendable about the trusts that a wholesale condemnation of them seems really silly. If the trusts have not generally benefited the people, but have been run in the interests of a few trust the people must blame themselves for having made it so easy for them make this modern commercial and industrial machine serve themselves

The law of this state recognizes the fact that the associations are meaning of the word. The associations do not limit the output. There are more growers going into bear growing, apricot growing, etc., since the organizations have been started than before. They do not seek to crush competitors, for they acknowredge every new association as a co operator, not as a competitor. They do not "fix" a price, but seek to sell at a fair price, remunerative to the grower. They seek to take the business out of the hands of speculators who cared not whether grower lived or died, and to put it on a stable basis. Secretary of Agricul ture Wilson commends the farmers for their wisdom in organizing co operative marketing associations, and urges consumers to be as wise. Here and there farmers are following the latter advice, and the next decade or two will see many farmers' co-operative marketing associations branch "The world do move." Al-

Application for Marriage License Held Up by Slight Impediment

Joseph Henry Freely, who gave his Plaintiff asks judgment for as 24 years, applied to County Clerk Williams this afternoon for a license to marry Loretto M. Stotenpurgh, aged 20, also of Santa Ana. The young woman and a female friend accompanied him, and after the proper application had been made out Freely remarked that they would take a walk and return for a license in a few minutes.

In the meantime Under Sheriff Squires and Probation Officer Scott. who happened to be in the office, recognized the woman as Mrs. Mary White, who was before the juvenile court only a little over a month ago as an unfit person to have the cusner and sent to the Detention Home.

BARKER MAKING GOOD Santa Ana Strong Man Heaving Shot Over 42 Feet

Angeles Examiner: Barker, one of Santa Ana High's versatile athletes is making good on the track team this season. Barker was the star of the football team last fall, being chosen for the all Southern California interscholastic eleven. He is taking care of the weights for the Peatlanders and is making good with a vengeance. He is heaving the shot over forty-two feet and is good for 100 feet in the discus throw.
